Script:

I like two types of music: I like modern rock such as Placebo and I like dubsteps such as Jason Status, erm...I enjoy going to concerts to see erm...Placebo. And I also like going to clubs to dance to dubstep.

[...] What makes me feel nostalgic whereas dubstep makes me feel more energetic. And that's why I like dancing through it. As well as listening to rocker concerts, I also like listening to it in my bedroom or with my friends.

My taste in music is also quite eclectic as I also like classical music. This is because I play the cello and when I was younger I played the violin.

My father on the other hand really likes jazz music, he can lock himself in a room for hours and just listen to it.

My mother is more like me she likes rock because it reminds her of her childhood. She really likes the Rolling Stones for example.
