Ellis Island

- Why did you bring me here, Grandpa ? Where are we ?
- We're on Ellis Island; this is where many immigrants arrived, when they wanted to live in America. My father, your great-grandfather, came here in 1904. I want to tell you his story. Look at the Statue of Liberty, over there, Mary. It was the first thing your ancestor saw when he arrived in New York harbor.
- Where did your father come from ?
- He came from Ireland; he was very poor, and he thought that he would have a better life in America. This is the American Dream. Come on, let's go inside. The immigrants arrived here, in the Great hall, and they were examined by the doctors upstairs.
- What happened after that ?
- They had to answer twenty-nine questions in two minutes. A lot of immigrants didn't understand anything. They were all frightened, very tired and worried.
- Look at that big wall, over there ! Let's go and have a look at it !
- This is the Wall of Honor. All the names that are written on it are immigrants' names. Look for your ancestor's name.
- Oh! Here it is !
